Brewer-Caldwell.

Miss Rosalind Deering Caldwell, daughter of Mrs. Andrew J. Caldwell, and Mr. John Brewer of Maryland were married at 8 o'clock last evening in the apartment of the bride's mother at Fontaine Courts, in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends.

The Rev. Dr. Charles T. Warner, rector of St. Albans Church, officiated, the bride and groom standing before an improvised altar of flowers. Peonies and pink roses were used throughout the suite as a decoration.

The bride's costume was unusually effective, the main part of the gown being of cloth of silver in high waist effect, with panels embroidered in pearls. Over the conventional tulle veil was worn one of rare old Spanish lace, bought in Spain by the bride's paternal grandfather, when consul general at Seville, years ago. It was adjusted with orange blossoms, and these flowers also appeared in her bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Brewer's traveling gown was of dark blue silk poplin, with a hat of the same shade of blue.

Married at St. Margaret's.

St. Margaret's Church was filled last evening at 8 o'clock with a company of invited guests to witness the marriage ceremony of Miss Elizabeth Ames Moore and Mr. Oliver Hazard Perry Champlin, Jr., of Buffalo, N. Y. The Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of the church, officiated. White peonies, bride roses and ferns formed the decoration about the altar, and clusters of roses were on the pillars of white satin.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her uncle, Mr. J. Campbell Keighler, of Providence, R. I., and wore a gown of ivory white satin with the bodice and tulle of rare old lace and net. A bridal veil with orange blossoms and a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride roses completed the toilet.

Miss Adelaide Champlin of Buffalo, niece of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant, and was exceedingly girlish and pretty in a gown of pink georgette crepe over pink satin, with which she carried a sheaf of pink roses. Mr. Arthur Harris of Buffalo was best man, and the ushers were Mr. John Campbell White of Baltimore and Mr. Galbraith Champlin, brother of the bridegroom, of Buffalo.

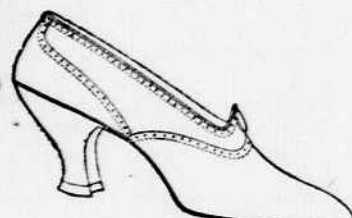

A reception at the apartment of Mrs. Samuel Ames Keighler, the bride's grandmother, at the Decatur, was for the relatives and out-of-town guests only. Mrs. M. W. K. Moore, mother of the bride, as well as Mrs. Keighler, received with the bride and bridegroom.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Alan Cole, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell White, Mr. and Mrs. W. Barry Waters, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marshall Smith, and Mr. Edward Bond of Baltimore. Mrs. Estep T. Gott and daughter of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith Gordon, Miss Virginia Fairfax Gordon, Mr. Kenneth Stuart Gordon and Mr. J. Howell Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Champlin will make their home in Buffalo, where the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Champlin, 2d, are old and well known residents.

Patrons and Employees Share the Profits Tomorrow

Is not success too often associated with mere dollars and cents? Does it not count for both success and happiness—worth more than dollars and cents—to be in sympathetic touch? "Profit-Sharing Day" brings the store proprietor, his chiefs and aids, you, the manufacturers and importers, all of us, in sympathetic touch. The following announcement of the Palais Royal's first "Profit-Sharing Day," clipped from The Sunday Star of four years ago, can be very appropriately used today:

The Spirit of the Day

The spirit of the day has been felt far outside of Washington—importers and manufacturers, for many years in friendly business relations, have been imbued with the spirit of the day, and the Palais Royal proprietor wishes to acknowledge indebtedness to the best element of the wholesale trade for many of the astonishing bargains told in these pages.

Note the Stars ★ ★ ★ Learn of Them

The lots sent by friendly importers and manufacturers at complimentary prices are small individually, while large collectively. Such lots are marked with a star, so that the reader will understand and arrange a visit as soon after breakfast as possible.
